Veterans' Administrator To Become U. S. Army Chief Of Staff

GRAY IS SELECTED FOR BRADLEY POST

By ROBERT G. NIXON
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—President Truman completed reorganization of the nation's armed forces today naming Gen. Omar N. Bradley, Veterans' Administrator, to succeed Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower as army chief of staff.

Carl R. Gray, vice president of the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad and a wartime Major General, was chosen as Bradley's successor in the Veterans Administration.

Climax of Moves

The chief executive's action in appointing Bradley to the top army post climaxed a sweeping series of moves which began with designation of James V. Forrestal as the nation's first secretary of national defense.

Simultaneously with disclosure of the Bradley appointment, Mr. Truman announced that Maj. Gen. Clifton B. Gates will be the new commandant of the Marine Corps.

Gates, veteran of the Pacific campaigns, will succeed Gen. Alexander Vandegrift, who is retiring.

Last week, the president named Admiral Louis E. DeJell as successor to Fleet Admiral Chester W.

Pa News Observes

Trenton, N. J., is receiving quite a number of large new city buses. A good-sized consignment of the buses was noted going through the city over the past few days.

Little expense should be incurred by the South Side in the installation of Christmas lighting this year. The system installed last year in the area was not removed and other than a few bulb replacements and testing for shorts, the lights will be ready for illumination at the proper time.

Reports of local residents returning to the city with a nice bear should be trickling in soon. Many hunters from the city and county left for the bear country to try their luck.

Windows of the city schools once more depict the season just ahead—Thanksgiving. Art classes of the various buildings have drawn some very clever Thanksgiving designs on the windows which are bringing much comment.

Some local motorists evidently haven't gotten around yet to attaching the front license plate on their automobile. Some cars running about the city are minus the front tag. Display of the temporary plate has grown, indicating that quite a number of new vehicles are being delivered to the city from the factories.

Although weather conditions during the past few days have been ideal for fall weather, reports from the local airport reveal that flying has been cut down to a minimum. Brisk winds and other atmospheric conditions are tending to keep the fliers out of the air.

Animated toys which have made their appearance in stores of the city in the past few days are attracting the attention of local youngsters who are keenly looking forward to the holiday season and its many attractions. Indications are that the kiddies will receive a greater supply of chocolate candy this year than they have for the past four or five years.

Royal Honeymooners At Picturesque Estate

By FRED DOERFLINGER
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

ROMSEY, England, Nov. 21.—Britain's royal honeymooners today ate at their first breakfast together as man and wife.

The menu prepared by the efficient housekeeper at the Broadlands estate in Romsey, where the prince and the new Duke of Edinburgh retired after their spectacular London marriage, included eggs, tea, toast and marmalade.

Britain's radiate future queen tired but tremendously happy after what she described as a "wonderful wedding," stepped across the threshold of her honeymoon home last night after a swift train journey from Buckingham palace.

At Picturesque Estate

The 21-year-old princess and her royal sailor husband will spend the first two weeks of their honeymoon at the picturesque Hampshire estate, and then travel to Balmoral castle in Scotland for two more weeks.

As soon as he and his bride drove up to the Broadlands mansion, young Prince Philip quickly

Food Saving Campaign To Be Increased

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—(INS)

The administration promised today to intensify President Truman's food conservation campaign under the leadership of Secretary of Agriculture Anderson, who once was accused of trying to minimize the program.

Anderson's aides said that meatless Tuesdays, eggless Thursdays and other grain-saving measures will be continued at least until the first of the year in response to the president's request that the drive be stepped up.

Other officials expressed belief, however, that the retirement of Charles Luckman from active direction of the campaign was the first indication that the conservation drive gradually is going to be abandoned.

In permitting Luckman to return to his $300,000-a-year job as president of Lever Brothers Soap Co., Mr. Truman said that direction of the food drive will be placed in the hands of his cabinet food committee, which Anderson heads.

Although weather conditions during the past few days have been ideal for fall weather, reports from the local airport reveal that flying has been cut down to a minimum. Brisk winds and other atmospheric conditions are tending to keep the fliers out of the air.

RICHMOND, Ind., Nov. 21.—(INS)

Two young Michigan hitchhikers were held at Richmond today in connection with the slaying of Kenneth Luhn, 25-year-old Lake Orion, Mich., auto worker and the theft of his car.

Luhn died early today in Grace Hospital, Detroit. Surgeons failed to remove two bullets from his brain but extricated one from his skull.

Police said Theodore E. Hall, 21, of Rochester, Mich., and Charles Pickett, 20, of Pontiac, Mich., admitted they shot Luhn three times and fled in his car.

Hall and Pickett were arrested by Richmond police for not paying a gasoline bill.

Police said the pair told them they intended a ride with robbing him. Instead, Luhn was forced out of his car and shot, according to police.

Ohio Court Rules

Against Housing

And Rent Control

Immediate Appeal Of Court Decision Expected By Housing Official

(BULLETIN)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—(INS)

Housing Expediter Tighe E. Woods announced today that an immediate appeal will be made, probably direct to the Supreme Court, from a federal court ruling that the Housing and Rent Act of 1947 is unconstitutional.

Housing officials said that the federal court decision would upset the entire rent control and housing program if it is sustained.

The appeal will be made by the Justice Department, Woods said, and that department will decide whether to go direct to the high court or go through the channels of the federal appeals court.

The ruling was made by Federal Judge Paul Jones, senior jurist of the northern Ohio district, and brought jubilation from landlords and rental property managers.

Judge Jones ruled in favor of a Cleveland landlord who challenged the rent law by raising apartment rents 40 to 60 per cent.

Not at War

President Truman, in his recent anti-inflation message to the special session of Congress, recommended strengthening and extension of the rent control act.

In his ruling Judge Jones said that Congress cannot control rents under its war powers because there is no longer a war and the country is, in fact, at peace.

The present rent control act is to be in force until February 29.

Install Pastor At Bethel U.P. Church

Rev. J. Harold McCausland installed for second time as pastor of N. Beaver Church

Rev. J. Harold McCausland was officially installed as pastor of the Bethel U. P. church at an impressive service held in the church auditorium Thursday evening.

Unique about the service, was the fact that Rev. McCausland is opening his second term as pastor of the church, having been the church leader for three years previously to accepting a call to Zelienople, where he served for two years.

Dr. J. Paul Graham, pastor of the Third U. P. church of New Castle, served as moderator of the commission and preached the sermon of the evening. He used for his thought the words of the Apostle Paul "Be Not Slothful".

In his charge to the congregation, Dr. D. L. Ferguson, minister of Highland U. P. church, asked the Bethel congregation to support the work of the minister and live in harmony and peace through the years so that the work of the church might advance.

Rev. James Crawford of the Mt. Jackson U. P. church in a very forceful charge to the pastor used the thought "Take Care For Thyself" as his sermon topic. He admonished the pastor to have care in his personal life, his study and his ministry. Rev. Crawford and Rev. McCausland were class mates together in college.

During the evening, several members of the church spoke and told of plans during the coming year to celebrate the one hundred fiftieth anniversary of the church during the coming year. Following the installation the congregation adjourned to the church social rooms where refreshments were served.

U. S. RECIPROCAL TRADE AGREEMENT MAY EXPIRE

(Continued from Page One) measures, must originate in the House, where they come under the jurisdiction of Knutson's Committee. If the committee takes no action, the act will automatically expire.

GOP leaders concerned with tariff legislation have discussed privately for months the possibility of permitting the reciprocal trade act to expire on the theory that no great harm would be done.

They believe a GOP administration will take over in January 1949 and that tariff legislation which would be more acceptable to a Republican President could then be enacted.

In the meantime, they stated, trade pacts already in existence with most of the nations of the world would continue for a number of years giving Congress ample time to pass new legislation in 1949.

Radar Operators Get Plane Down In Zero Ceiling

FAIRFIELD, Cal., Nov. 21.—(INS)—Expert radar operation by a ground control crew was disclosed today to have provided a safe landing in near "zero-zero" weather for a trans-Pacific plane carrying eleven passengers, including two generals.

The incident took place at the Fairfield-Suisun Army Air Base last Tuesday but was left unrevealed for three days.

Among the plane's passengers were Lt. Gen. Ennis C. Whitehead, commander of the U. S. Far East Air Forces; and Brig. Gen. E. S. Wetzel, en route from Japan to Washington, D. C.

Blanket of Fog The airfield was blanketed with dense fog as a C-54 transport plane called in by radio on the last lap of a flight from Tokyo via Hawaii. The pilot, Capt. C. S. Glenn, said he wanted to make one attempt to land, despite a "zero" ceiling and forward visibility of only one-sixteenth of a mile.

The crew of the field's GCA—Ground Control Approach—went to work with the radar and brought the big plane to a smooth "blind" landing.

Officers at the field said the landing was effected "under minimum instrument conditions" in "unusual" weather circumstances.

Kerosene Throwing Ends In Fatality

POINT MARION, Pa., Nov. 21. (INS)—A family quarrel in which, police said, a Point Marion coal miner and his wife threw kerosene on each other, caused the death today of Mrs. Florence King, 32, and critical burns to her husband, Harold, 36.

Police said the husband, writhing in pain in a Uniontown, Pa., hospital, told them his wife set fire to herself after he had gone into another room. He said each threw kerosene on the other during the fit, police said.

Carried Wife Out

King said his clothing caught fire when he heard his wife's screams and attempted to put out the flames.

King carried his wife from the house and her body, burned from head to foot, was found on the lower steps on the back porch of their home. He had collapsed on the upper steps of the porch.

Truck Driver Drowns As Result Of Bridge Floor Giving Away

YORK, Pa., Nov. 21.—(INS)—Coroner Lester J. Sell today reported a 31-year-old cement truck driver was drowned in Little Conewago Creek when a half-century-old covered bridge collapsed beneath the weight of his vehicle.

Sell said John G. Kline, an ex-serviceman, was pinned in the cap of his truck when it plunged through the bridge flooring.

Millard Poff, 16, York, R. D. 1, a student enroute home from school, was thrown into the creek when the span collapsed but swam safely to shore, he added.

State police said Kline apparently ignored a sign warning vehicles of more than one and a half tons were banned from the bridge. Kline's truck weighed an estimated 10 tons, they added.

ROYAL HONEYMOONERS AT PICTURESQUE SPOT

The handsome groom who had held the bride's hand whenever possible during the day—from the instant the Archbishop of Canterbury pronounced them man and wife at Westminster Abbey—was still holding tightly to her hand when they entered the house.

Not Carried Over Threshold

Philip did not carry the royal bride over the threshold as do less royal young bridegrooms.

Exhausted as the bride must have been by her tumultuous wedding in London, delirious with happiness and cheers, she insisted on inspecting her honeymoon home at once.

The butler, Frank Randall, showed them over the suite of nine beautiful rooms which they will occupy.

Elizabeth was delight with everything. Her young face was joyous as she went from room to room of the first house in her life where she will reign as mistress.

Flowers filled the rooms which were scrubbed and polished. Miss Marks, the housekeeper, had taken particular pains with Lady Mountbatten's bedroom, which the young couple occupy.

The Broadlands estate is that of Philip's uncle, Earl Mountbatten, governor-general of the India dominion.

Seven suitcases and a set of cowhide dressing cases—out of the 12 pieces of luggage brought to Broadlands—were taken upstairs to the honeymoon suite.

Deaths Of The Day

Miss Emma Gibson

Miss Emma Gibbons, aged 63 years, died this morning at 1:30 o'clock at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. Clarence McFate, Mahoning township. Death was the result of a several months' illness.

Funeral services will be conducted Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the residence of her sister, Mrs. J. C. McFate, with her pastor, Rev. James A. Crawford, officiating. Interment will take place in Mt. Jackson cemetery.

The body will be returned late this afternoon from Mahoning funeral home to the McFate residence, where friends will be received at any time after 7 o'clock.

The obituary and funeral arrangements will be announced tomorrow.

William M. Taylor

William M. Taylor, Enon Valley, died suddenly as a result of a heart attack Thursday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock, a few minutes after entering the office of a physician in New Castle. Although Mr. Taylor had been under the physician's care for some time, yet at no time was he considered to be seriously ill.

Many of the officials of U&E will come from Pittsburgh. The engineering department is coming out almost en masse in buses.

The plant of the United is one of the most modern of its kind in the world. Molding pits that look like swimming pools, cranes that look strong enough to lift a skyscraper off its base, castings that are the size of small houses, boring mills, planers, huge lathes, all of them modern and all of them geared to special jobs.

Tomorrow's Open House will be a capsule education in modern industry. It is a trip that will be worth the time and the invitation should be accepted by thousands.

The deceased was employed for 26 years as a rural mail carrier, serving part of route 2 out of the Enon post office. He worked as usual on Thursday. Mr. Taylor was a member of Westfield Presbyterian church.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Dora L. Dunlap Taylor; one son, William O. Taylor, Steubenville, O.; two brothers, Roy E. Taylor, Augusta, Mich., and Clifford Taylor, Mt. Jackson; twin grandsons and his step-mother, Mrs. Bertha McMahan Taylor, Enon Valley.

C. Preston Zimmerman

C. Preston Zimmerman, aged 71 years, Mercer R. D. 6, died yesterday as the result of a heart attack at his residence.

Born August 8, 1876, in Mercer county, he was a son of the late William H. and Isabelle Nelson Zimmerman. He was born on the same farm where he died. The deceased was a farmer by occupation.

Law Forbids It

The Electrical Workers won a bargaining election of the Colonial Radio Corp., Riverside, Calif., on Aug. 14 while the Furniture Workers were victorious in an election at the Myrtle Desk Co., High Point, N. C., Aug. 21.

In both cases the board held that it could not certify a non-unionizing union because the law forbids it even to investigate a question of representation until the union has met the filing requirements. The board ordered both cases "closed".

Survivors include one son, Henry Zimmerman, Mercer R. D. 6, one sister, Miss Norah Zimmerman, and three grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Cunningham funeral home, Leesburg, with Rev. William A. Lloyd officiating. Interment will take place in Mercer Cemetary.

Friends will be received this evening and Saturday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock at the funeral home.

NSA CHAPTER GIVEN CHARTER AT DINNER

New Castle chapter of the National Secretaries Association received its charter Thursday evening at a dinner meeting in the Village Inn, Harlansburg, when Miss Margaret DeWyer, of Buffalo, N. Y., national vice president of the northeastern district, was present as the guest of honor and formally presented the charter to the chapter.

Dinner was served at 6:45 o'clock for tables for four with covers for fifty and placecards at each place.

Later in a meeting room on the second floor, Miss DeWyer addressed the group on the N. S. A. three-fold program. Since July there has been an increase of 15 chapters in the northeastern district with 80 organized at the present time, she remarked.

We are working toward the time when, as professional workers, qualified secretaries will be licensed as certified professional secretaries by the various states, she told the group.

The speaker was introduced by Miss Florence C. Davis, who presided, and introduced the other officers: Miss Gertrude Graham, vice president, Miss Lucille Emery, recording secretary, and Miss Ruth Cleveland, treasurer.

Also introduced were a number of guests from Pittsburgh and Youngstown, Miss Dorothy Eckbreth, Mrs. Mary Hagan Barnett, Miss Lydia Sartoris, Miss Marie Vondera, Miss Reilda Garrett, Miss Janet Hiestor, Miss Margaret Sullivan, Miss Ida Konez, and Miss Mary Grace Bennett, of Pittsburgh, and Miss Eve Janczki, Miss Lois Shindlecker, and the Misses Gertrude and Margaret Bennett, of Youngstown.

It was announced that one member, Miss Rosetta Treharne, will leave in the near future to take up residence in California.

Delinquent Tax Board Can Now Be Named Here

State legislature adopted a law at the last session which gave the commissioners of counties in the state power to appoint a board for collection of delinquent property tax, according to Solicitor Robert White's statement to council at their Thursday meeting in city hall. For the purpose of studying the act, council, upon motion of Safety Director D. O. Davies will call a conference of council, the school board and commissioners.

Under the state act, the county commissioners are given the right to name all of the members of the board. To this, Solicitor White said he was opposed but through a conference, it might be possible to have the different bodies determine the membership.

He said were this accomplished and the commissioners elected to set up a delinquent property tax system, it would prove advantageous to the city. At present, the solicitor's office handles delinquent property tax.

He pointed out that if a person owed delinquent taxes to the city, school and property, he could obtain a statement of all his delinquencies from the board, instead of those visiting two different places, as at present.

White explained that once the city gave authority to the county commissioners to do this, the agreement would be permanent and could not be changed.

BODIES AND SEWERS

We hear a lot of talk about flushing out the kidneys and bowels.

A person might think that the body was about the same as a sewer.

A sewer sometimes needs cleaning and flushing.

The body is not like a sewer. The body is alive and active all the time.

A large part of the body is water. Enough water should be drunk every day to maintain this amount of water. Some extra water is needed for digestion and other things.

Different people require different amounts of water. Usually thirst is a pretty good indicator.

If a person drinks as much as he wants he will usually be pretty safe on the water question.

COMPLIMENTARY COLORS FOR RED-HEADS

"I am a red-head and am continually told by my family that I not wear this color or that. As a result, I am confused and am contemplating having my hair dyed. What do you advise?"

Answer: Why people with red hair so often have inferiority complexes on that account has always been a puzzle to me. The greatest two glamour girls of history—Helen of Troy and Cleopatra—had red hair. Artists invariably prefer red to any other color for the hair at so do most Hollywood directors. Yet beginning with school days when children call their red-haired companions "Reds", "Ginger", "Brick Top", the latter accept the appellation as complimentary and wish their hair were another color.

The only accompaniments of red hair that might be considered detrimental are sandy eyelashes and freckles. The eyelashes can readily be corrected with brown mascara. The freckles can be prevented by sun hats or toned down by the use of dark make-up; but as a matter of fact, most men think a gentle sprinkling of freckles an asset to charm.

Almost all colors, except red and pink as well as purple, may be successfully worn by the titan-haired. Greens, browns, blues and of course black are excellent.

Avoid rouge. Use lipstick, but leave your skin white unless you wish to tone down freckles with the suggested dark make-up.

Question: When the salad (at luncheon or dinner) is served before the main course, may it, properly, be eaten as soon as put on the table or should it remain untouched until after the main course?

Answer: The salad is usually served after the main course; but should it be served either before or along with the main course, may be eaten at that time.

Present your problems to Miss Markel who will promptly mail personal replies to questions from readers inclosing stamped, self-addressed envelopes.

WASHINGTON CALLING

that could have been obtained by writing to a government bureau. The same thing seems to have been true of the alleged ring in Washington. One document mentioned in printed rumors is a report on the financial condition of China—which could hardly have been very secret, since the financial condition of China has been glaringly apparent for a long time.

The real tragedy is that such behavior sows doubt and dissension. It sets brother against brother. That is the menace of communism in this country, and in my opinion it is the only menace.

We can very readily guard against that menace. We can refuse to be stampeded by fear and hysteria into burning down the house to mend a small crack in the plaster.

By proceeding calmly and above all legally, refusing to resort to star-chamber proceedings, we can remove those who might by some remote contingency endanger American security. We should never allow ourselves to forget that the great mass of Americans, of whatever origin, creed, race or color, are loyal to America and to the concept of a free people for which this nation stands.

THE WORLD AND THE MUD PUDDLES

lands, if owners, or the cancellation of their leases, if lessees. There has been no increase in Britain's good supply as a result of this step; on the contrary there has been a very serious decrease. The farmers of England no doubt feel that they are more capable of running their business than a group of politicians known as the government.

Turn To Coal Mining
Then the British Socialists turned to the coal mining business. The miners joyfully sanctioned this, believing they were going to get more money for less work, particularly, less work. They refused to work more than five days a week. They struck and now Great Britain is importing coal, literally "carrying coal to Newcastle."

Being faced with all of these failures of Socialism, the returns from the latest municipal elections throughout Great Britain show that the Britons are pretty well disgusted with Socialism and there is strong evidence that they are about to return to the Conservative Party.

There is one certainty—as Lincoln said: "No nation can function successfully, one-half slave and one-half free."

Attend Funeral At Ellwood City

County S.S. Association Workers
At Funeral Of One Of Leaders;
Other Association Notes

Among the County Sunday School Association officers to attend the funeral of Harry W. Brown, 347 Pittsburgh Circle, Ellwood City was Robert M. Strickler, Jr., president. Mrs. H. F. Magill, secretary and also Miss Laura Strickler. Mr. Brown was one of the vice presidents of the association for a number of years.

Mr. Brown was active in the starting of the teaching of the Bible in the schools of Ellwood City more than twenty years ago, and his interest continued in this as well as all phases of organized Sunday school work. Last year was the first time he missed attending a county convention for many years, and he wrote and expressed his regret for being out of the city at the time. One of his daughters, Letitia, now Mrs. N. P. Mortenson of Greenville, Pa., was a former Young Peoples Superintendent of the Pennsylvania State Sabbath School Association.

Mrs. Kenneth Gwin, R. No. 1, Edensburg, called county Sunday school headquarters and requested a duffle bag for the Mission Covenant church of Bessemer. Mrs. Scott Kirk, R. No. 3, Volant, also called and requested a duffle bag for the Ladies Missionary Society of the Rich Hill Presbyterian church. Both were told that duffle bags were not available at the present time, but that the clothing and shoes could be put in cardboard containers and sent by Parcel Post to the Church World Service Center, New Windsor, Maryland. Both agreed to do this. It is estimated that over 100 duffle bags have already been sent to the Service Center to be processed, before being sent to those in desperate need overseas.

This year the County Sunday School Association is planning to contribute $600 to the support of the State Sunday School Association, which will be $100 more than last year. This will leave about $400 to carry on all of the other work of the Lawrence County Sabbath School Association.

Son Of Policeman Held For Starting Fire In Church

Philadelphia Fire Chief Makes Arrest Of 20-Year-Old Youth, Admits Act

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 21.—(INS)—John Allen, 20, son of a Philadelphia policeman, was held today on charges of starting the blaze which wrecked historic St. Anne's Roman Catholic church in Philadelphia on Armistice Day.

The four-alarm fire left only the walls of the great church standing, and irreparable art treasures went up in smoke.

Admits Starting Fire

Fire Marshal George J. Gallagher, who made the arrest, said Allen admitted starting the fire because "one time, two kids licked me in a Polish church."

Gallagher added that he has known the boy for many years and disclosed that the youth has never learned to read or write.

According to a signed statement, Allen related that he threw a light book of matches into a closet in the church, then, he said, he walked out and watched the flames from his nearby home.

Report Communists Plan 'Cominform' In Western Areas

PARIS, Nov. 21.—(INS)—Authoritative diplomatic sources in Paris disclosed today that reports have been received indicating that communist plans are under way for establishing a "cominform" in the western hemisphere.

Headquarters of this international communist organization in the western hemisphere would, according to these reports, be established in Latin America—probably a step in organizing a world "cominform" on a regional basis.

Two capitals reportedly are being considered by the communists for headquarters of the organization. They are Monevideo, Uruguay and Mexico City.

Head Of War Assets Administration Tenders Resignation To President Truman

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—(INS)—President Truman today announced the resignation of Maj. Gen. Robert M. Littlejohn as head of the War Assets Administration.

Littlejohn will be succeeded by his deputy administrator, Jess Larson.

The President praised Littlejohn highly for his work as War Assets administrator, saying that he had done a brilliant job under extremely difficult conditions, and had the toughness needed for that task.

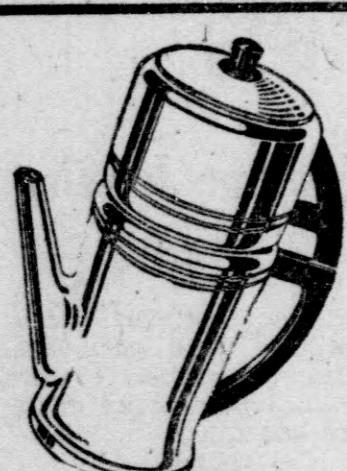

The President also said the War Assets Administration will be liquidated next spring.

He told his news conference that General Littlejohn yesterday showed him the facsimile of the check for 143 million dollars that he got for the sale of the wartime oil pipelines.

The President said he had never seen so much money before in all his life.

Average Length Of Life Increases

Twenty-Five Year Gain Is Made In Past Century Figures Reveal

NEW YORK, N. Y., Nov. 21.—The average length of life in the western world has increased about 25 years in the past century, more than in all prior centuries together since the dawn of civilization, according to the statisticians of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company.

For prehistoric man the length of life, estimated from the characteristics of fossil remains, probably averaged about 18 years. By the middle of the last century, the average had risen to about 40 years, and it is now more than 65 years. The statisticians expect that within the next decade or two, the average length of life for the population of the United States will be extended to the Biblical three score and ten.

Life Then Pitifully Small
"The lease of life for prehistoric man was pitifully small as measured by modern standards," the statisticians comment. "This does not mean that there were none surviving to mature life, but that the number of deaths in infancy and childhood were terrifyingly high. To judge by the large proportion of preserved skulls that show traces of heavy blows, death by violence seems to have been a common occurrence at that period."

"With the advance of early civilization, there appears to have been a very gradual increase in longevity," the statisticians note. "At the time of the Romans, about 2,000 years ago, the average length of life may have been somewhere from 20 to 30 years. During the Middle Ages and up to the end of the Eighteenth Century, there is little indication of any material rise in longevity, the average for this period being somewhere around 35 years.

Standard of Living Rises
"The rise in standard of living and the development of scientific knowledge early in the nineteenth century evidently had a beneficial effect upon longevity. By the middle of the century the average length of life advanced to 40 years, and around the end of the century the average was nearly 50 years. The great advances in the control of disease so far this century have brought the average length of life in this country to almost 66 years, an increase of 16 years in less than five decades. This record is undoubtedly without parallel in the whole range of human existence, and may never again be equalled," the statisticians comment.

Further progress is to be expected as present knowledge in medical and sanitary science is more fully utilized and as new weapons to fight disease are developed. According to the statisticians "Within the course of the next decade or two, it should be possible to extend the average length of life for the population of the United States to at least 70 years."

New Castle Family 'Adopts' French Girl

Foster Parents' Plan For War Children Announces 'Adoption'
By Local Family

NEW YORK, N. Y., Nov. 21.—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Dickey, Jr., 333 East Lincoln Avenue, New Castle, Pa., have "adopted" Genevieve Loonis, 13 years old French girl in France, through the Foster Parents' Plan for War Children, it was announced yesterday by Mrs. Edna Blue, International chairman. American headquarters of the Plan are at 55 West 42nd street, New York City.

At the present time the Plan is operating children's projects in Holland, France, England, Malta, Belgium, Italy, Switzerland, Poland, Czechoslovakia and China and is caring for children of fourteen different nationalities.

The child is in one of the projects that the organization operates. The case history of the child who has been "adopted" follows:

Harold "Doc" Boak performed in the induction ceremony, stressing the motto of the organization—"Friend of the Boy", and also the Optimist creed.

Civic Drama Guild Chairman Mike Bowden gave a report on the plays which are being brought to the city. The next presentation will be January 9 at the Cathedral and single admissions will be sold at Fleming's music store and by members of the club.

The members expressed their deep regret at the loss of their president, Al Garren, who will leave the city soon for another position with the Pennsylvania Power company. Mr. Garren presided for the last time at the session.

At the start of the war, the Loonis family lived in Dunkirk and there is no need to tell of the terror of the Allied evacuation from those bomb and shell swept beaches. A direct hit completely demolished the home and they had to join the long lines of refugees fleeing along the roads. The Germans took the father prisoner and sent him to slave labor. For six years nothing was heard from him—then he was traced, but found to be desperately ill. The strain of years of fierce struggle and nervous tension finally broke the health of the mother and she collapsed. At this point Plan stepped in to take care of Genevieve.

She came to us a frightened, ragged little girl. She could not sleep—because of the nightmares that seemed to stay with her even through the day. She talks and worries continuously about her parents. She has lost all security and shows it in her nervous little gestures. It is good to see signs of her physical progress, but it is not easy to comfort her and make her forget the years of war.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Humphrey were visitors in Sharon on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Dodds, of New Castle, spent Tuesday at the home of their aunt, Mrs. J. A. Dodds and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnson and son, visited at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Michaels, at London Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Donnell and son, were visitors at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Yarian on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Humphrey were visitors at the Mercer Cottage Hospital Sunday afternoon, where they called on Martha Mayne, who had an appendicitis operation, and Lyle Cummings who had gotten his hand injured in a corn husker.

Howard Yarian was among those who left on Monday to hunt bear.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnson and twins, were Friday evening visitors at the home of her brother, Robert McNichols and family, at Wampum.

John Ligo attended the funeral of his cousin, Mrs. Rachel Kurtz at Smithville, Ohio, on Wednesday.

This is the prediction of Indian Joe, a Cherokee, who has been forecasting the weather in Rawlins for nearly a quarter of a century. Joe uses a secret tribal method handed down to him. It has to do with the way the wind blows, but other than that Joe isn't saying. No records have been kept of Joe's predictions, but he's usually fairly accurate.

Truman Asserts Government Must Control Exchanges

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—(INS)

President Truman asserted vigorously today that the government must have the power to control grain and commodity exchanges.

The Chief Executive told a news conference that the government wanted the same power of control over the commodity exchanges that it has over the New York Stock Exchange and the Federal Reserve Bank.

Asked whether that meant the same margin requirement controls as on the stock exchange, the President said that is up to Congress to decide, but strict controls are urgently necessary.

The President spoke first of the grain exchange.

He was asked whether he also meant wool and cotton.

He replied with a question—Aren't they commodities also?

Patricia Schmidt Trial Adjourned Till December 2

HAVANA, Nov. 21.—(INS)—The murder trial of Patricia "Satira" Schmidt encountered another long delay Thursday when court was adjourned until Dec. 2 to allow more medical study of the case.

Patricia shot John Lester Mee, Chicago attorney, who later died. He received a neck wound aboard his yacht.

The delay was asked by Dr. Israel Soto Barrios, counsel for Charles Jackson. The latter is charged with concealing the facts of the case.

Will Call Father

Two medical experts, Dr. Jose Diaz Padron and Dr. Enrique Henriquez Parren will study medical certificates in the interim. Dr. Jose Manuel Fuentes Carretero, public prosecutor, has asked that Dr. Lester Mee, of Chicago, the victim's father, be called to testify. The request was granted.

The prosecutor's move is a formality. It will enable him to waive calling unimportant witnesses and thus shorten the trial.

During the trial the defense has tried to prove that Mee's wound was not necessary fatal but that he died from improper handling en route to the Anglo-American hospital.

The early education of James Watt, famous British mechanical engineer, was hindered because he was unable to attend school regularly on account of ill health.

Meyers Declares Charges False

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—(INS)—Maj. Gen. Bennett E. Meyers returned to the witness stand Thursday and branded "entirely false" testimony that he received $150,000 in "kickbacks" from officials of an Ohio war plant.

At the same time the justice department revealed that Meyers not only faces possible prosecution for income tax evasion but that all of his wartime activities are under investigation.

Meyers told the senate war investigating committee that he never received anything from Aviation Electric Corp. of Dayton, Ohio—of which he allegedly was secret owner—except repayment of loans to the company and its president, Bleriot Lamarre.

He charged that "false" testimony had been given by Lamarre and Thomas Readinow, the firm's vice president, and declared his belief that the two men had conspired against him for "personal" reasons.

Disabled Combat Vets Can Enlist

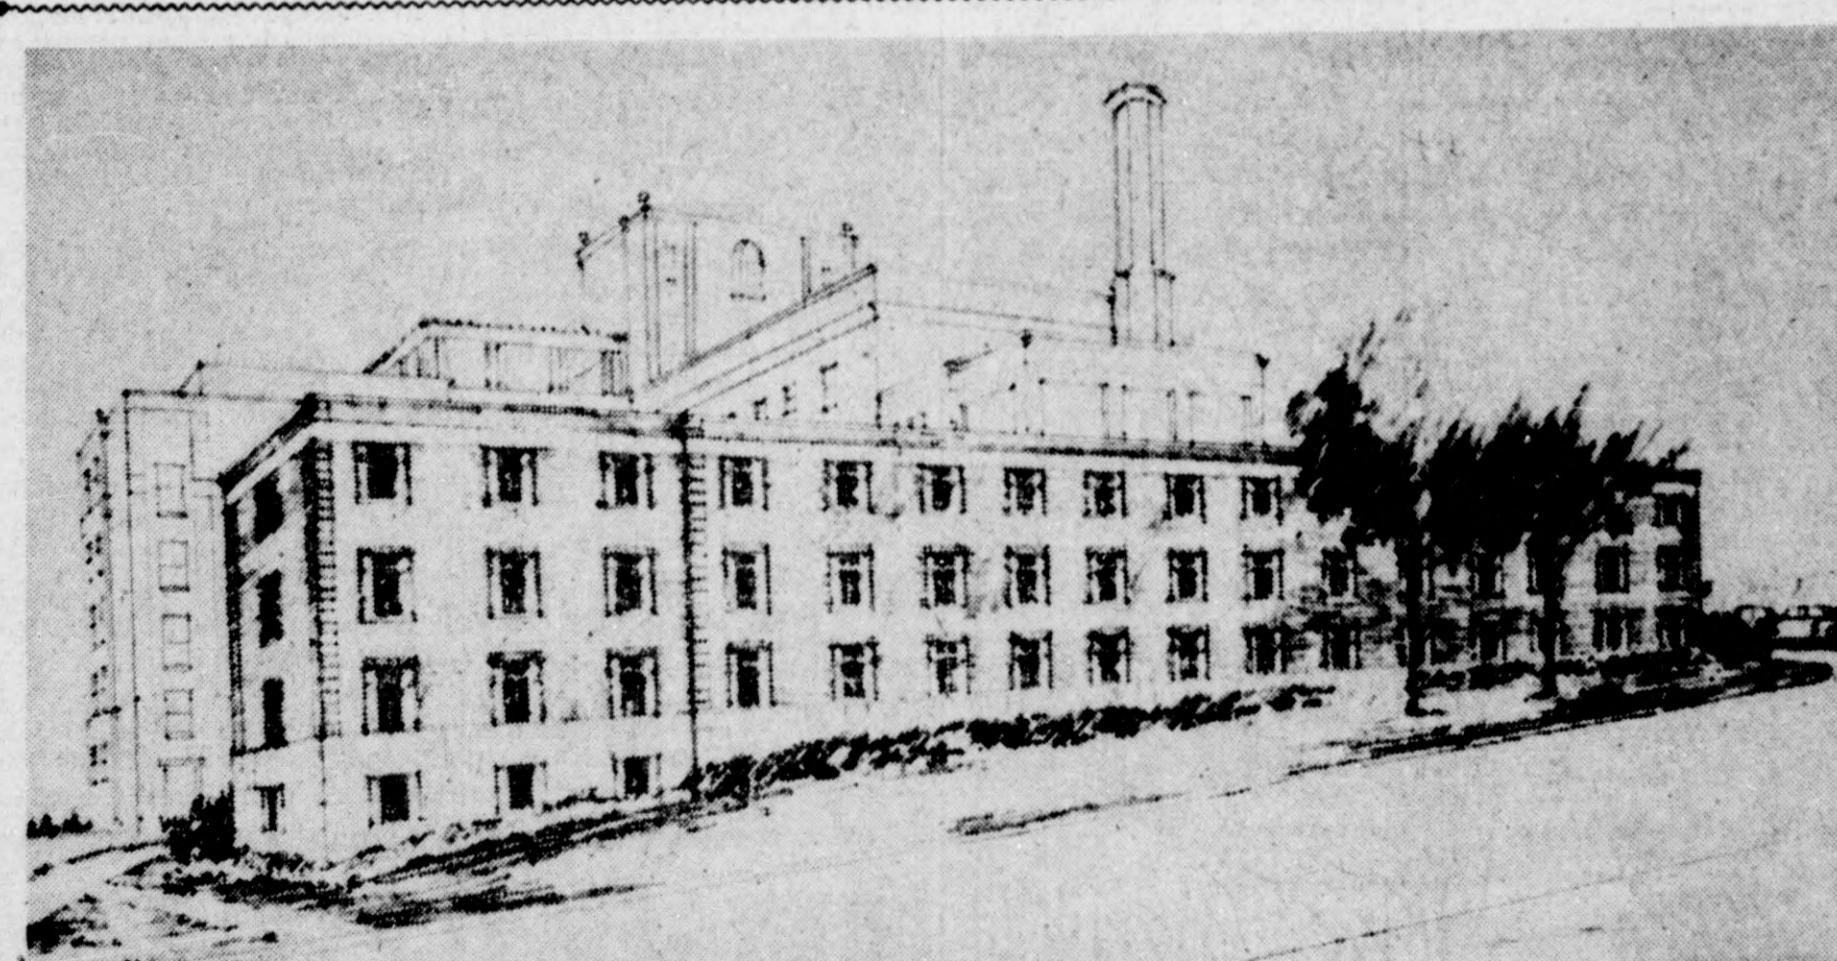

Deadline On Enlistment Period
For Men Possessing Needed
Skills Close At Hand

First Sgt. Stein of the local U.S. Army Air Force recruiting station today announced that partially disabled combat wounded veterans of World War II, who possess or are trainable in certain critically needed skills, can still enlist in the regular army in the grade held at time of last separation from the service.

The deadline for such enlistments has been set at December 31, 1947, so all combat wounded veterans desiring to take advantage of this program had better give it serious thought at this time.

The job fields are very broad in this program and any combat wounded veteran who is interested is requested to contact the local recruiting station, located in room No. 202, Post Office building, or phone extension No. 7593 and make arrangements for the recruiting sergeant to visit you at your home after normal duty hours.

Proposed New Wing Of Jameson Memorial Hospital

This architect's sketch shows the proposed new wing at Jameson Memorial hospital, built at the rear of the present hospital and running parallel to Garfield avenue. A campaign to raise $750,000 by public subscription for construction of the addition will be largest effort of its kind in the history of Lawrence County. Seventy-five additional beds will be provided in the new wing to ease the severe shortage of hospital beds in the county. W. G. Eckles Co., of New Castle, are the architects.

Opposition To Clemency For Baby Slayer

HARRISBURG, Nov. 21.—(INS)—A member of the state pardons board on Thursday indicated strong opposition to the clemency appeal of Paul W. Barrick, serving a life term for the slaying of the "Rosebud Baby" in 1939.

The 30-year-old inmate of Western Penitentiary was sentenced in Juniata county court June 14, 1939, for a crime labeled "revolting" by Secretary of Internal Affairs William S. Livengood Jr.

Barrick, formerly of Marysville, was convicted of fatally injuring two-year-old Miriam Marie Wolfe, called the rosebud baby by hospital nurse. She died of head injuries in Sunbury General hospital in March, 1939.

Mrs. Sara Berger, of Harrisburg, sister of the imprisoned man, said

Barrick should receive a commuted sentence because the baby's mother "went entirely free." The mother, Helen Wolfe, was pregnant at the time he beat the illegitimate child.

Livengood, a member of the four-member board, pointed out the convicted man had admitted guilt.

"Since he said he was guilty he is where he belongs and as far as I am concerned that is where he is going to stay," he said.

Mrs. Berger said the penitentiary chaplain had told her Barrick was what she called "a very good boy."

John Tracy Clinic Founder Is Honored For Excellent Work Done For the Stone Deaf

Mrs. Spencer Tracy, the former Louise Treadwell, of New Castle, and founder of the John Tracy Clinic, has been applauded by Look magazine, for her work in behalf of the stone deaf.

Mrs. Tracy overcame her own child's infirmity and now helps hundreds of other parents overcome similar afflictions in their own children.

Her misfortune became a boon for others when she discovered that her infant son was stone deaf. With her movie-star husband, Spencer Tracy, she was determined to treat their son, John Tracy, normally.

The Tracys never substituted gestures for speech when playing games with their son. The boy learned to lip read and by imitation he learned to speak.

To bring the benefits of her experience to others, Mrs. Tracy established the John Tracy Clinic in Los Angeles in 1942. Since then individual instruction already has been given in the clinic to over 2000 deaf children and their parents.

International News Service Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 21.—Edgar G. Robinson, who has portrayed some of the screen's toughest characters, has just proved he can take it as well as dish it out.

In a scene for Universal-International's "All My Sons", Eddie got a worse beating than he ever handed out to anyone in his memorable gangster role of "Little Caesar".

The scene required Burt to grab Eddie under the armpits and shake him savagely. It had to be done 20 times before all of the various angles could be shot.

Skin Rubbed Raw

When it was over Eddie rushed into his dressing room and slammed the door. Everybody at first thought he was angry and Burt hurried over to talk to him.

But, it was only because Eddie wanted to strip off his clothes to get attention. The skin under the armpits had half across his chest had been rubbed raw.

Said Burt: "It made me feel bad when I saw it."

Hollywood's smallest actor, Jerry Austin, goes to work again next week after almost four years of touring the country "trying to give people a laugh."

Jerry, who comes only half way up the thigh of this six-foot three reporter, was on the set the other day for costume fittings. The studio has made him two midget swords. They would make good

Rapid Strides In

President Of Medical Society
Praises Strides Being Made To Alleviate Suffering

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 21.—(INS)—Current strides in the field of medicine held the praise of Dr. Edward L. Bortz, president of the American Medical Association who said they "are making our medical texts books obsolete."

Dr. Bortz told a meeting of the 15th Annual Free Cancer Forum in Philadelphia that scientists are now working on a "very exciting" experiment to locate the site of a disease and to give it exact treatment.

Magie Bullets

He mentioned the use of "magic bullets" in the form of radio-active isotopes as tracers of diseased areas of the human body.

Dr. Bortz said medical treatment of disease has been improved to the extent "that it is unnecessary for anyone to die today from tuberculosis or syphilis because of the discovery of the sulfa drugs, penicillin and streptomycin."

He pointed out that one out of every five deaths from cancer today is unnecessary, and that education and early diagnosis are necessary to remedy the situation.

General Pershing Given Desk In Big Pentagon Building

Black Jack Pershing May Never Leave Hospital, But Has Desk
In Army Center

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—(INS)—The army moved a new desk into the Pentagon today, a desk that will be accorded the greatest respect even though it will never be used.

For the sign on the desk says: "Gen. Pershing."

Old Black Jack has rejoined the armed services in spirit if not in body. While he remains at Walter Reed hospital—and probably will remain there for the rest of his life—his office has been moved into the proper military atmosphere.

Secretary In Charge

For many years the staff of the United States' only general of the armies, worked in a spacious office in the old state department building next to the White House on Pennsylvania avenue. But the Pentagon, across the river in Virginia, was the center of the army.

Gen. Pershing's office belonged there, but sentiment, made vocal by the American Legion and other organizations, kept it in its original building. Finally, however, the White House needed space in the next-door building, and the army decided to bring its highest officer home.

Presiding over the office is Col. James M. Adamson, military secretary to the general of the armies. Col. Adamson joined the general during the Mexican campaign in 1916.

Firms Must Explain Stream Pollution

HARRISBURG, Nov. 21.—(INS)—Approximately 40 industries were slated to explain alleged violations of the commonwealth's anti-stream pollution law during a hearing today before the sanitary water board.

They have been cited for failing to proceed with plans to correct waste dumping in waterways.

Representatives of 40 Pennsylvania communities appearing at a hearing yesterday claimed similar alleged violations stemmed from lack of funds, legal tie-ups or stalled negotiations.

The board staged the mass hearings in an attempt to end delays by industries and municipalities.

Lawrence County Farm, Home News

By Extension Representative,
Lewis C. Dayton, Agriculturalist,
Miss Emmaine Mehlman,
Home Economist.

RAT-KILLING POISONS ARE TESTED

Lawrence county's rats should start worrying. The farmers are getting tired of feeding them. They are asking what kind of poisons to use to rid their premises of the rodents.

Red squill, in either the powder or liquid form, is the safest rat poison to use on most farms. It is safe, because being a powerful emetic, most animals rid themselves of the poison before serious damage is done. However, since rats, mice, and rodents in general are incapable of vomiting, they retain the poison in their bodies and die from its effect.

The action from red squill is quite violent, and some farm animals that are old or weakened and get the poison may die from this action rather than from the effects of the poison itself.

Antu is apparently as good as or better than red squill, but is much more poisonous to animals other than the rodents. In one county several valuable dogs died because of carelessness in handling the antu, and its effects on rats in some cases has been unpredictable.

E. J. Udine, extension entomologist of the Pennsylvania State College, says that commercial rat baits may contain arsenic, phosphorus, antu, or red squill, all of which may be dangerous to domestic animals and children if not used properly. All rat baits should be handled with care. Dogs and cats ought to be fed well before setting out rat bait. Large quantities of the bait should not be set in any one place.

Further information on poisoning rats may be obtained from the Agricultural Extension Association Office, 206 Post Office Building, New Castle.

Arrest 161 Today In Strike Disorder At Chicago Plant

About Fifty Of Those Arrested Are Women, CIO Pickets Surround Entrance

CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—(INS)—A strike disturbance outside the Cory Corporation plant resulted today in the arrest of 161 persons, about 50 of them women.

Scores of others, including policemen, suffered bloody noses, swollen lips and bumps on the head.

The melee lasted about 25 minutes when 75 policemen undertook the task of dispersing the crowd gathered about the plant.

At 7 a.m. there were four CIO-Electrical Workers pickets outside the plant, which manufacturers glass coffee pots.

Crowd Gathers

Fifteen minutes later 250 men and women jammed into a tavern and approximately another 500 milled about outside while union leaders exhorted them to "march on the plant and let no one pass through the picket line."

Six abreast, the group advanced toward the plant entrance, where Capt. George Barnes, head of the police labor detail, halted them. He told them the demonstration was in violation of a court order, which allowed four pickets.

Barnes told the union leaders to order the "unionists to disperse. The clash followed.

Recommend More Airfields Be Kept In Philippines

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—(INS)—A committee of congressmen recommended today that the United States maintain in a "stand-by condition" two or three additional air fields in the Philippines which under present plans would be abandoned.

Members of the house armed services and appropriation committees pointed out in a report on their trip overseas last summer that current plans called for maintenance of Clark Field, and Subic Bay and Sangley Point.

However, they added, there are several other airfields representing an investment of "many millions of dollars" which the Philippine government desires to keep in a stand-by condition.

The group stated:

"In view of the still unsettled conditions in the Far Pacific area, it is felt that perhaps it might be unwise to abandon these fields completely at the present time and it is recommended that discussions be inaugurated between the respective governments"

Raises Chinchillas For Easy Profits

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 21.—(INS)—How would you like to turn a $5 investment into a $20,000 or more profit?

According to N. H. Barth, of Harmony, Pa., $5 is all it costs to feed a chinchilla.

Barth, owner of the largest chinchilla farm in Pennsylvania, says the animals require no more care than rabbits. "Mr. Chin" is satisfied with hay and grain pellets for his dinner and when full grown will bring $500. It takes 130 pelts to make a full length chinchilla coat.

Peace Treaty With Japan Is Urged

Congressmen Recommend Treaty With Japan Without Soviet, If Necessary

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—(INS)—A committee of Congressmen recommended today that a peace treaty be signed now with Japan, if necessary without the Soviet Union.

The committee also urged that substantial aid be given China to defeat the Communists in that country.

A group composed of members of the House armed services and appropriations committee was in a formal report on a two-month world trip that the government of Chiang Kai-Shek will fall unless American assistance is extended soon.

The congressmen, headed by Rep. Cole (R) N. Y., declared:

"When China falls into Communism, Japan cannot remain immune to that force and the entire Orient and Far Pacific areas will be lost to Communism."

"It is a tragic error for our country in its efforts to stem the spread of Communism in the world to concentrate its program exclusively in the European theater."

This home has a bad case of "I. W."

Is your home a victim of I. W.*? Is the wiring that was installed in your home 15 or 20 years ago sufficient to handle today's load? Although the cost of electricity has remained at the same low level, the use has been steadily increasing through the years. Full value and efficiency from your electric appliances can't be achieved when your wiring is inadequate.

It's not a hopeless case though . . . I. W.* can be remedied. Modernize by providing for a large enough service entrance to supply sufficient power for your home. Meet the increasing demand for electricity with enough convenience outlets. To be able to supply enough electrical energy for your appliances, have plenty of branch circuits.

When you are making plans for building or remodeling, don't forget . . . modern electric living calls for modern electric wiring.

Banking Industry Given Warning By Internal Secretary

SCRANTON, Pa., Nov. 21.—(INS)—The banking industry had a warning today from Secretary of Internal Affairs William S. Livengood that it must keep credit financing under control to prevent depression.

If purchasing power got out of hand due to over-generous crediting, "it might become an agency of depression, leading to widespread repossession of goods that had fallen in value," he told the American Institute of Banking at Scranton last night.

Disastrous Losses

If such were the case, there would be "disastrous losses all the way from the original purchaser to the ultimate credit extending agency".

He predicted that unless banking institutions voluntarily practiced controls, they would experience "new and even more rigorous governmental regulation and countervalue financial disaster." He referred to recently lifted federal credit regulations.

Violence Continues In Holy Land Today

Four Arabs, Five Jews Killed As British Evacuations Continue

JERUSALEM, Nov. 21.—(INS)—Four Arabs were killed and at least five persons injured in Arab-Jewish shooting in the Holy Land during the past 24 hours while British evacuation operations progressed under a strict security blackout.

Five Jews were wounded last night in an attack on a bus near Jaffa. The action was believed to be a retaliation for an early-morning action—allegedly by Stern Gang members—in which four Arabs died and a fifth was injured.

Security forces on the boundaries between Jaffa and the all-Jewish city of Tel Aviv were alerted to prevent outbreaks of inter-communal violence.

At least 30,000 British soldiers are known to have been withdrawn from Palestine in the past 60 days and docks are piled high with British material.

Fraternal Benefit Decision Is Made

HARRISBURG, Nov. 21.—(INS)—The State Justice Department ruled a domestic fraternal benefit society may provide in its by-laws that a member may lose his social membership but still retain the organization's benefits.

The department also ruled that like provisions in by-laws of a foreign fraternal benefit society licensed in Pennsylvania will be considered valid.

The opinion was issued upon the request of Insurance Commissioner James F. Malone, Jr.

Seek Incentives For Joining Army

Army Needs Recruits—
Monthly Enlistments Fall
Far Below Need

By GEORGE MOISE
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—(INS)

The Army, desperately in need of men and lagging far behind the Navy and Air Force in enlistments, sought the aid of enlisted men and officers alike today in search for recruiting incentives.

Two Army boards, one consisting of general officers and the other of junior and non-commissioned officers, met at Army Ground Forces Headquarters, Fort Monroe, Va., today in compliance with AGF special orders.

The orders specifically stated that the boards were "to consider enlistment incentives for ground combat arms".

Maj. Gen. Willard S. Paul, head of army personnel and administration, agreed that the situation was "desperate", but he expressed hope that the incentive boards could come up with some help for the situation.

Failure of the ground forces recruiting campaign is graphically illustrated by October enlistment figures. Last month the air force enlisted 10,308 men to exceed a quota of 9,000. The Navy reported a total of 14,937 enlistments and re-enlistments as against a monthly goal of 15,000.

Only 10,520 men joined the army compared to a need of more than 20,900 per month.

The ground forces admit that competition with the "glamor services"—the air force and navy—is difficult, but army officers point out that a nation cannot have a military establishment without infantrymen and quartermasters and engineers.

Gen. Paul declined to predict results of the incentive board meetings, but he said that they probably would consider such matters as adequate housing for families at army posts and vocational training for soldiers.

Paul also indicated he hoped congress would pass legislation easing the ground forces' problem. Specifically, he said, the AGF would benefit most from bills making the women's army corps part of the regular army and authorizing employment of civilians for jobs now held by uniformed personnel.

He predicted that if the WACS are made part of the regular army, enlistment among women would be greatly encouraged.

If a bill is passed allowing greater civilian employment, thousands of soldiers now acting as hospital orderlies, chauffeurs, etc., will be released for duty with combat arms.

INJURED HUNTER IS IMPROVING

The condition of John Murawski, 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Murawski, 213 West Madison avenue, injured in a hunting accident Wednesday, is greatly improved. He is confined to the New Castle hospital.

The youth was shot in the right hip when he reached for a rifle in the back seat of the auto and the weapon accidentally discharged. According to reports, the gun had been checked and was said to be "empty" when the accident occurred. Two other young hunters accompanied Murawski, Len Valley and Bill Evanisko.

Russian Menace Given Attention By Babson

By ROGER W. BABSON
(Copyright, 1947, Publishers Financial Bureau, Inc.)

BABSON PARK, Mass., Nov. 21.—The revival of the Third International should rouse every thinking American to action. Action of what kind? This is the most important problem facing both employers and their workers today—far more important than prices or wages.

The Russian leaders are wiser than we want to admit. They have studied people, conflict and revolutions. Their moves are calculated like those of the expert chess player to make us use our own strength to destroy ourselves. The Communist knows that the idea of a bridge is more important than the bridge. It may be easy to destroy the bridge and very difficult to rebuild the bridge if you lose the idea. Therefore, reason the Communists, let us try to destroy the idea of democracy. Since ideas tend to be perpetuated by intellectuals, colleges, schools, the press and the like, Communism has made a point of successful infiltration into these ranks.

American business, on the other hand, have too often forgotten the school, church, press and radio in their plans. They have sometimes failed to realize, that the idea of their very freedom of enterprise is in a great measure intrusted to be imparted in classrooms, on the screen and through radio. The newspapers have their feet on the ground and can be trusted; but some of the other groups are now going wild in their race for votes, money or circulation.

Let Us Not Kill Ourselves
Communist most certainly has the dual goals of (a) building up a strong defense within, through the cultivation and development of natural resources and (b) building a subtly strong offensive of party members in the western hemisphere who, like termites, bore away under cover.

Let's stop kidding ourselves. There can be no peace between democracy and dictatorship. Sooner or later the one or the other will be annihilated. The course of the world might have been different had we acted when Japan walked into Manchuria or when Mussolini raped Ethiopia. The world will be markedly different if we do not soon awaken to history's object lessons.

Democracy Must Recapture Its Youth

Communism is fired with a highly combustible and destructive fanaticism. Has democracy, on the other hand, become too passive and too contented? There seems to be no longer the urge to win souls. Where, today, in this great country of ours is there real enthusiasm for democracy? It just does not seem to exist.

Our democratic way of life, purchased and hallowed, for us by sweat and blood, was once also fired with passion and enthusiasm. Today, too often our way of life is taken for granted. It, therefore, now must become the obvious challenge to every businessman to rekindle that spirit and enthusiasm. This especially applies to members of school committees, of boards of directors, and those on the production line, at home and in the church.

Conclusion

I am reminded of Jesus' parable of the talents. Democracy is a sacred talent. "To him that hath, it shall be given. To him that hath not, even that which he hath shall not be taken away."

Chinese Getting Ready To Ballot

Estimate 156,000,000 Will Go To Polls Friday, Saturday And Sunday

NANKING, Nov. 21.—(INS)—Chinese voters numbering up to approximately 156,000,000 will go to the polls Friday, Saturday and Sunday in their country's first national elections to select delegates to the national assembly.

The assembly is scheduled to convene Christmas day—when the new constitution comes into effect—to elect China's president and vice-president.

WILL Form Yuan

The president will form the executive Yuan which includes the premier and his cabinet.

Elections for the legislative Yuan are set for December 21 to

23. No data has yet been announced for election of the control Yuan which is responsible for investigation and impeachment of officials found guilty of maladministration.

Communist occupation of approximately 600 electoral districts will prevent election of the full quota of 2,971 national assembly delegates allotted under the constitution to China proper.

Mongolia is to select 22 representatives. Tibet 10, various border racial groups 6, overseas Chinese 19, and occupation groups 56.

Hong Kong, Siam, Malaya and the Philippines have refused to allow Chinese elections to be held within their respective countries.

Mayor's Traffic
Study Committee
Making Survey

In an effort to reduce traffic congestion in the downtown district during busy hours, the Mayor's Traffic Study Committee is making a survey of suggested adjustments in freight deliveries. The survey will take some time but sometime near the first of the year it is expected an equitable plan will be worked out.

Chairman Samuel A. Mooney said today, "we have had a number of suggestions in the matter of freight deliveries in the downtown section and we want to investigate all of them."

"The idea is to schedule freight deliveries at such times as would least interfere with traffic. However, if we make any suggestions in the matter they will be suggestions that will meet with the approval of the merchants and delivery agencies."

The committee met Thursday at noon in The Castleton hotel and considered a number of traffic problems. The traffic light at Grant and Jefferson streets was taken up. It was reported that motorists were making a left turn when the green light was only for north and south traffic. Police Chief Robert Hanna said he would investigate the condition and see if it can be remedied.

Another matter considered was the crossing of school children at Grant and Sampson streets.

The most nutritious parts of animal carcasses are most often used for fertilizer or feed rather than consumed by humans. They are the blood, lungs, stomach, liver, pancreas, kidney, brain and heart.

These payments will include all subsistence allowances due from the start of the semester until the end of the last fall subsistence pe-

Judge Gives Some Advice To Persons Planning Marriage

Says One Marriage In Five Reaches Divorce Courts In Present Period

CHICAGO—(INS)—The necessity for premarital caution in selecting a mate is emphasized in a forthright approach to the problems of marriage by an eminently qualified expert, Judge John A. Sbarbara, veteran Cook County divorce judge.

His recently published "Marriage Is On Trial", state that six marriages in 100 ended in divorce in 1890, while one in five hits the divorce courts today.

Judge Sbarbara writes:

"Whatever the reason for the divorce rise, whatever its consequences, it is evident that the only way in which it can be halted is by making marriage itself more desirable than many people find it. That is the purpose of this book."

Suggests Thorough Acquaintance

Judge Sbarbara suggests thorough acquaintance as a most important step in premarital caution. He recommends among other important attributes to a happy marriage similarity in tastes, comparable mental endowments, adaptability, and a complete absence of haste in reaching a decision to marry.

Why do the high hopes of marriage dwindle so often into the despair of divorce?

Judge Sbarbara discusses incompatibility, the sex factor, infidelity, drinking and gambling, finance, the in-law problem and boredom.

The author, moreover, attempts to supply a concrete remedy for each.

As an example, for those faced with an alcoholic husband, he points out:

"Alcoholics Anonymous' Helps"

"In recent years the organization which calls itself 'Alcoholics Anonymous' has been a tremendous aid to habitual drinkers who earnestly desire to help themselves. A non-profit group, it works on a theory of co-operative self-help."

Perhaps the author's most vital contribution lies in his scholarly outline of possible corrective measures.

He proposes that action to make modern marriages more successful be launched along a united front, pointing out that society as a whole pays the staggering cost of the divorce bill.

He believes parents can prepare children for success in marriage by instilling affection, patience, and moral integrity as well as sane sex knowledge.

He proposes a state-operated course of pre-marital training and counsel.

ALTERNATES HOME

Cedar rust is a parasite of the cedars, but due to its peculiar life cycle, it will die out unless there are trees of apple family nearby, where its spores can alight and develop through each alternate year.

Chinese Tradition Conversion Factor

KONGMOON, China.—(INS)—Because an old merchant of Kongmoon maintained the Chinese tradition of respect for the written word, he became a convert to Catholicism.

Bishop Adolph Paschang of St. Louis, Mo., writing in the Maryknoll monthly magazine relates how the merchant, Lo Yung, went about the streets gathering up pieces of paper on which there was writing.

Lo Yung would then burn the scraps in one of the city's brick furnaces which bore the counsel: "Respect and pity the written paper."

One day, Lo Yung found a page from a Catholic catechism. Puzzled by the exposition of the Trinity he made inquiries as to the meaning of the words.

He was finally directed to the Catholic mission and there received instruction and was baptized.

BAKING SCHOOL GRADUATES GI'S

PITTSBURGH—(INS)—Seven ex-GI's graduated recently from Pennsylvania's first public baking school in Pittsburgh.

The graduates, many of them ex-mess sergeants, are now qualified to bake anything from hand scrapes to elaborate wedding cakes.

Given aptitude tests, the original 80 applicants were cut to 18. One dropped out.

For completing the 1,270 hours of baking instruction successfully, the veterans were given, besides diplomas, a set of the necessary implements for icing, moulding and cutting their "masterpieces."

Two new classes were formed recently and veterans were conspicuous in their attendance.

Fire Losses In Ten Months Of '47 Break All Records

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Estimated U. S. fire losses for the first 10-months of 1947 broke all records for any single full year in U. S. history, it was announced today by W. E. Hallie, general manager of the National Board of Fire Underwriters.

Losses of $54,946,000 during October brought the ten-months total to $572,928,000. The high record for U. S. fire losses was set in 1926, when fires destroyed $361,800,000 worth of property, and was nearly equalled in 1946 when $561,487,000 worth was destroyed, during the entire year.

October's losses were 37 per cent higher than the losses of $40,108,000 recorded in October 1946. They were 14 per cent higher than losses of $47,990,000 incurred in September 1947. The 10-months losses were 24.7 per cent higher than the first 10-months losses last year.

Huge Losses

Two conflagrations during the month, the $5,000,000 Grace Line pier fire in New York City, and the forest fires in Maine, which caused an insurance loss of about $6,000,000, helped boost the October loss figure.

The fire destruction in October brought the total estimated losses for the 12-months ending October 31 to $675,728,000, an increase of 23.8 per cent over losses of $545,358,000 for the similar period ending October 31, 1946. These estimated fire and lightning losses under fire insurance policies are on an incurred basis, including an allowance for uninsured and uninsured losses.

Huge Grain Loss To Rats, Mice, Insects

HARRISBURG, Nov. 21.—(INS) interest of further conservation of precious food and feed grains from Pennsylvania farms, State Secretary of Agriculture Miles Horst today cautioned farmers, millers and grain storage operators against continuing to "set a free table" for rats, mice and insects at an annual cost estimated at more than $15,000,000.

Rats alone account for nearly $7,000,000 worth of damage per year, according to estimates of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Secretary Horst pointed out.

Other sources estimate each rat working on stored grain will destroy enough to keep a laying hen in good grain rations for more than two years since the average hen consumes about 75 pounds of grain per year.

Insects and molds are even more destructive than rats in grain storage bins, Secretary Horst declared. Pennsylvania farmers continually are fighting half a dozen different kinds of grain moths about the same number of varieties of beetles and various grain mites. Their annual "board bill" in Pennsylvania is estimated at approximately $8,750,000.

Secretary Horst said guards against rat damage include rat-tight bins, careful use of poison baits. The keeping of active cats and dogs, and destruction of rat breeding places. Insect damage can be reduced by treating bins with residual sprays or fumigants.

Gold Rush Livingston Retired Prospector

directed his footsteps. His search for the rainbow end took him to Alaska—where he fought the arctic cold—and to the hot deserts of Nevada.

The old prospector said his biggest strike was made in Old Mexico. But this time the gold was deep in the ground and he couldn't raise the money for needed mining equipment.

This disappointment cured his wanderlust and he came back to Rawlins.

Livingston admitted ruefully: "I haven't hardly been out of town since," he admitted.

The Wyoming pioneer, who is alert and active despite his years, recalled:

"Grass never grew under my feet. I went from one big mining boom to another. I made money fast and I lost it the same way."

The trail of gold first led Livingston to the West from his home in Missouri in 1877, the year of the big mining excitement" in the Black Hills of South Dakota.

He found no sudden riches but he caught the fever and wherever gold was found, there Livingston had 12 days leave and has re-enlisted for two years in the naval service.

Merriman is home on 23 days leave and will then return to Comwestern Pacific of San Francisco for further assignment to duty.

Retirement System Ordinance Gets Council Approval

Measure Is Reported From Committee With Favorable Recommendation

City council at their Thursday session reported with a favorable report from committee, a bill which creates a Retirement System for officers and employees of the city and a board for its administration. It fixes the compensation to be paid, the contributions thereto and states who is eligible to enjoy its benefits. No one is required to join the system, but once one does join he cannot retire from it. No payments shall be made prior to January 1, 1950.

The board would consist of the mayor, controller, finance director and two employees to be selected by those who join the system.

The annual compensation fixed by the bill to which an employee or officer shall be entitled when he has completed 20 years of service and has attained the age of 60, is 50 per cent of the average annual salary or wages which he (or she) earned during the last five years of his service to the city, or $2,000 per year whichever amount shall be the smaller.

Pay Three Per Cent of Salary
They shall pay into the board from December 15, 1947, three per cent of their salaries or wages, except laborers, which contribution shall be applied by the board to the purposes of the bill.

If for any cause, including death, any person contributing to the fund shall cease to be in the city's service, he shall have become entitled to any compensation, the total amount of the contributions paid into by him shall be refunded.

Any payments or refunds due to a member who dies, shall be paid to his surviving spouse, if any, otherwise to his next of kin.

The measure becomes effective January 1, 1950.

It also states that a person at 60, who has served 12 years and whose service is terminated without his voluntary action, after December 15, 1947, shall be entitled to receive after 1950, such portion of the full compensation fixed by the bill, or if he continues to make contributions for the full 20 years, shall draw full compensation.

The measure gives the board authority to invest the funds.

The city's appropriation to aid the fund must not exceed in any one year an amount in excess of the proceeds of three-tenths of one mill on the assessed valuation of the city for city purposes.

While the measure, once it is enacted into ordinance, becomes effective December 15, 1947, no compensation shall accrue to any officer or employee prior to January 1, 1950.

Elliott Chosen Most Valuable

Braves' Third-Sacker Finishes Ahead of Ewell Blackwell For Honor

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—(INS)—

Husky Bob Elliott, slugging third baseman of the Boston Braves, is the surprise selection today as the most valuable player in the National League for the 1947 season. He succeeds Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals 1946.

Elliott, whose booming bat sparked the Braves to third place in the final standings, received 205 of a possible 336 points on ballots cast by 24-man committee of the Baseball Writers Association of America.

Blackwell Second
Second place went to Ewell (No-Hit) Blackwell, ace right-hander of the Cincinnati Reds. Blackwell had 175 points. Third was Johnny Mize, home-run hero of the New York Giants (144), and fourth was Bruce Edwards, star catcher for the champion Brooklyn Dodgers (140).

Jackie Robinson, first negro player in the major leagues, maximized his successful rookie year by placing fifth with a 106-point aggregate.

All told, 26 players figured in the voting.

Elliott's margin of victory was accomplished via first place votes, of which he received nine, five more than Edwards. Each first place vote counted 14 points, with second place worth nine, third place eight and so on. Ten players received first place votes.

Bears-Mars Legion In Stadium Battle

Giant Elevens Await Kickoff

Mars Bringing Team Here That Resembles "Steelers" For Size, Bears Confident

It will be a "battle of giants" at the stadium here tonight as the Wabash Bears of Mahoningtown tackle the Mars Legion team, in a semi-pro clash. The kickoff is slated for 8 o'clock.

New Castle football fans will see two elevens that match in size the Pittsburgh Steelers. Mars is bringing a team here spearheaded by Jim English "bone crushing" 220 pound fullback, that averages 199 pounds on the line and 183 pounds in the backfield.

The Bears will match in size the line, but not the backfield. The Bear carriers will be light and fast.

Hope For Dry Field

Coach Blackie Adamo of the Bears is anxious to have a dry field tonight so that his "scatback" Bobby Doster who is a reserve ball lugger, can get "going" when needed. The Bears figure to be better than Mars on a dry surface, with light and swift Eddie Jacobs, Gilroy, F. Adamo, Craig, and Palmerino.

Adamo gave his Bears the final "once over" last night at the practice field and pronounced them fit and ready for a grueling contest this evening. "We will be in a tough ball game, against a club that beat us last year, and will try for a little revenge", Adamo concluded.

Mars Has Fine Record
Mars, has a very enviable record to date with seven wins and one defeat. The Mars line will be spearheaded by two giants, C. Marburger at left tackle, 230, and A. Purvis at center, 230 pounds.

New Castle football fans will no doubt jam the stadium for the game, as this is football weather, and the grid game is popular here. The center section 4 is reserved only. The fans will utilize the concrete stands and the end bleachers only tonight. Willie Domenick, president of the Bears is looking for a large crowd this evening, owing to the last Friday showing by the Bears in tying the great Ellwood Trojans.
